

PARTICIPATION, RESIDENTS' INITIATIVES AND INFORMAL POLITICS: URBAN GOVERNANCE AND THE CHANGING STATE IN/OF THE CITY

Academic Workshop, November 20th and 21st 2017
Anthropology and Development Studies, Radboud University, Nijmegen

Program November 20th 2017

9:30 – 10:30	Coffee, welcome, introduction	by Martijn Koster
10:30 – 10:45	Short documentary	'Eviction of El Oasis'
10:45 – 11:40	Presentation 1	Social urbanism for the most vulnerable? A study of (in)formal politics and imaginations of the state among the 'territory-less' in Medellín, Colombia By Adam Moore Discussant: Raúl Acosta-Garcia
11:40 – 11:45	Short Break
11:45 – 12:45	Presentation 2	A Lacanian analysis of the decay of participatory urban governance in Recife, Brazil by Sven da Silva Discussant: Carolina Frossard
12:45 – 14:00	Lunch
14:15 – 15:15	Presentation 3	The Tentative State of Relational Welfare By Milena Marchesi (co-authored with Anick Vollebergh and Anouk de Koning) Discussant: Flávio Eiró
15:15 – 15:30	Coffee
15:30 – 16:30	Presentation 4	Rethinking Liberal Governance: on State Authority and its Other by Insa Koch Discussant: Wiebe Ruijtenberg
16:30 – 18:30	Free time (city tour, happy hour, rest)
18:30	Dinner

Program November 21st 2017

9:30 – 10:00	Coffee
10:00 – 11:00	Presentation 1	Self-policing as ethical development by Katherine Smith Discussant: Flávio Eiró
11:00 – 11:15	Coffee
11:15 – 12:15	Presentation 2	Where resistance and active citizenship meet: the entanglement of care and control in residents' initiatives that engage with newcomers by Lieke van der Veer Discussant: Insa Koch
12:15 – 13:15	Lunch
13:15 – 14:15	Presentation 3	'Earned citizenship' and welfare provision in Manchester: marginalised citizens' experiences and understandings of poverty and responsibility by Janne Heederik Discussant: Katherine Smith
14:15 – 14:30	Coffee
14:30 – 15:30	Presentation 4	Navigating inequalities: mobility infrastructures and entrenched disparities in Guadalajara, Mexico By Raúl Acosta-Garcia Discussant: Martijn Koster
15:30 – 15:45	Coffee
15:45 – 16:30	Wrap up	by Anouk de Koning
16:30 – 18:30	Free time (city tour, happy hour, rest)
18:30	Dinner	